

TELLING THE NEWS WITH PICTURES

LARGE HATS seem to be due from Paris this season. The hat on the left is of soft lavender straw, girdled with lilacs and edged with lavender ribbon. The other is also straw, but is trimmed with cream-colored lace and old rose. (Int'l News Reel.)

QUEER CEMETERY—The Indians near Vancouver have peculiar tombstones in addition to the conventional ones. Ship models, coffee-pots, wooden images, and sewing machines are frequently used. (Int'l News Reel.)

BEWARE THE HOBBY DOG—Jackie Coogan, child movie star, has a dog with a hobby—tearing the clothes of strangers. It is just as well to be friendly toward Jackie. (Int'l News Reel.)

SCALPING PARTY—Kit Carson, namesake of the frontier hero, is on a scalping party. As coxswain of the Harvard crew, he hopes to win from Yale. (Int'l News Reel.)

HIGH LIFE—The panda, a member of the raccoon family, lives in the Himalayan Mountains at 12,000 feet. It is the champion mountain climber of the world. (Int'l News Reel.)

WILLIAM ERRAZURIZ, millionaire brother of Mrs. Blanca De Saullis, who killed himself in Paris for unrequited love of Peggy Hopkins Joyce. He was attache of the Chilean Legation in Paris. (Int'l News Reel.)

OFF FOR VACATION—E. H. Sothorn and Julia Marlowe, Shakespearean actors, played with a movie camera while waiting for the boat to sail for Europe. (Int'l News Reel.)

LATEST PHOTO OF MRS. CROKER, widow of the Tammany boss, who may have to fight the children of the former leader to retain his $3,000,000 estate. (Int'l News Reel.)

TRAINING for post office employees is being given in larger offices. Harriet Frieberg and Ethel Miniter, New York, showing articles not safely wrapped. (N. Y. Am.)

HEARS AND SEES WITH FINGERS—Willetta Huggins, seventeen, Chicago, blind and deaf, hears and sees with her fingers. Odors of narcissus and jonquils are unpleasant to her.

CHINESE WARRIORS are no longer poorly drilled soldiers. They are of high type and have modern airplanes and artillery to support them in their wars. (Int'l News Reel.)

KILLED IN RIFLE DUEL—Jacob Kobitz, nineteen, was killed by Victor Janculowicz, sixteen, while on a camping trip near New York. Trouble arose over some spilled soup, Jacob proposed a "fight," and the two hunted each other with small calibre rifles. Kobitz was finally shot through the head. (Int'l News Reel.)
